Meet the coaching staff

My name is Robbie Mudge. I am the founder of Altitude Tennis Academy. I was born and raised in Huntersville, NC and fell in love with the game of tennis when I was 7 years old. I chose to play college tennis at North Carolina State University. I earned 3 All-ACC honors and earned a top 10 D1 college doubles ranking. After graduating and earning my Bachelors of Science in Sport Management, I played professionally for just under 2 years. On tour, I got to compete against some of the worlds best, such as Stefanos Tsitsipas, Frances Tiafoe, Denis Shapovalov, and Tennys Sangren. Our mission at Altitude Tennis Academy is to provide a culture that builds character and offers proper tennis instruction to juniors and adults of all levels.

Ivan Besancon is our head pro at Altitude Tennis Academy. He was a top 3 junior player while growing up in France. His junior accomplishments include making the quarter finals of the junior french open as well as the orange bowl. He has wins over current top players including Djokovic, Delpotro, Cilic, and Gulbis. He went to Mercer University on a full scholarship. He then worked as the director of academy at the John Drew Smith Tennis center, a 24 court faciliy in Macon, GA. He has also been the director of tennis for summer camps at Healy Point Country Club in Macon, GA as well as Pinewood Prep in Summerville, SC. He has helped multiple teams win state chapionships in SC at the 3.0 and 4.0 level before moving to Huntersville to join Altitude Tennis Academy.
